

NSC is looking for an archives volunteer

Minimum of three months starting mid May, 2021 (or whenever it is safe to do so)

One day a week (or the equivalent hours)

Is this for you?

Do you have an interest in social history particularly of Nicaragua and the UK in the 1980s and 1990s?

Do you have strong organisational skills?

Are you willing to commit to volunteering on average one day per week in the NSC office in Finsbury Park, north London?

If you answered yes to these questions, then this might be the role for you!

About NSC

For information see <http://www.nicaraguasc.org.uk>

Role of archives volunteer

To assist with systematising records of UK – Nicaragua solidarity in the 1980s and 1990s including internal and external documents, posters, briefings, banners, exhibitions, flyers, badges, sales items, t-shirts, music, books, and videos.

To draft inventories of the above

Person Specification

Commitment to the aims of NSC

Strong organisational and administrative skills

Able to commit at least three months' volunteering, on average one day per week.

Some knowledge of Nicaragua/Latin America

What we can offer

Comprehensive induction into the work of NSC

Support and supervision by an NSC staff member

Opportunity to learn more about the history of UK – Nicaragua Solidarity

Lunch and travel expenses within Greater London

NSC has undertaken a Covid related risk assessment of the building where the NSC office is located and the NSC office itself to ensure sanitising and social distancing are in place in line with government requirements.

How to apply

Please send the following to Helen on campaigns@nicaraguasc.org.uk

CV, a brief cover letter explaining why you would like to volunteer for NSC, how you meet the person specification, and what you hope to get out of volunteering with NSC

Deadline for applications: 30 April